Duro-Last® Names Albert Frattaroli as New Vice President of Finance

SAGINAW, Mich. — Duro-Last, a member of Holcim Building Envelope, is pleased to announce the appointment of Albert Frattaroli as its new vice president of finance. In this role, Frattaroli will oversee Duro-Last's financial strategy and operations, driving initiatives to enhance profitability, streamline financial processes and support continued growth.

Frattaroli brings more than 20 years of experience in finance, having held leadership positions with global organizations such as Amcor, Owens Corning, Ally Bank, Honeywell International and PricewaterhouseCoopers. His expertise spans financial planning and analysis, operations finance, internal controls, acquisition integration and team leadership.

"We are excited to welcome Albert to the Duro-Last family," said Darren Schulz, Duro-Last president. "Albert's extensive experience in financial management, coupled with his ability to partner with leaders of the business to drive operational and profitability improvements, makes him a perfect fit for our leadership team. His proven success in these areas will be invaluable as we continue to innovate and deliver the highest-quality solutions to our customers across the commercial roofing industry."

Frattaroli holds a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Chartered Accountant (CA) designation. He earned his Honors Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Windsor in Windsor, Ontario, Canada.
